Re: Investigations on Feng (Kevin) Liu

Dear Mr. Everdell,

Please be advised that this firm has been recently retained to represent Feng (Kevin) Liu in the Southern District's criminal investigations against him.

It is our understanding that attorney Paul Goldberger has been in communications with you on behalf of my client in the past, but my client has now decided to go through this firm in substitution of Mr. Goldberger's office.

The criminal investigations against Mr. Liu has been ongoing for about three years, with no evidences which could be viewed as enough to build a case against him. Meanwhile, the investigation process and the FBI agents' intrusions in his employment have caused him unable to stay at any job for a meaningful duration of time, for the past three years, and he is in an economic dilemma now.

Mr. Liu has asked us to tell you that if he is guilty of any offense, please arrest him and commence a proceeding; if not, please respect his civil rights of liberty at his employment and allow him to earn a normal living by closing up the investigations.

Mr. Liu also indicated that he is willing to be cooperative in any of your investigations if necessary.

Thank you very much.

Sincerely Yours,

Ming Hai
